

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

MAY GIVE HAMPTON
SEASON'S PENNANT

Directors of Peninsula League Called to Meet Tomorrow Night.

WOULD DECLARE WINNER
AND THEN REORGANIZE

Understood the Managers of Clubs Want to Close Old Order of Things and Start Anew With Organization of Smithfield, Athletics, Fort Monroe and Hampton as Playing Nines.

The board of directors of the Peninsula Baseball League has been called to meet at the Hampton Young Men's Christian Association quarters tomorrow night, when several important questions will be taken up.

It was understood yesterday that the other managers in the league have decided to have the directors declare Hampton the winner of the pennant and the Spaulding cup for this season and then reorganize for the rest of the season with Hampton, Fort Monroe, Smithfield and the Athletics as the teams. A handsome silver cup will be made the trophy for the team winning the greatest number of games for the remainder of the season and the money to purchase the cup will be donated by the four teams. Whether this suggestion will meet with the approval of the directors cannot be now stated, but the suggestion is said to have been made by the managers of the other nines and not by Hampton.

Smithfield-Athletics Controversy.
As to the Smithfield-Athletics controversy over the four players, it is generally believed that the trouble will be easily adjusted as Smithfield is desirous of remaining in the league and will probably not make any very strenuous objection to Manager Blau-ford claiming his four men. The game on Saturday was merely an exhibition one at Fort Monroe and the

BAPTISTS HERE TODAY

Virginia Peninsula Association to Convene in Annual Session.

COL. JONES MODERATOR

Session This Morning Will be Devoted to Hearing Reports of Committees and Forming Organization—Tonight Rev. R. A. Folkes Delivers Sermon.

With prominent ministers and laymen from all the counties comprising the Peninsula Baptist Association membership in attendance, the fourth annual convention of the association will convene this morning at the Memorial Baptist church. The opening session will begin at 10 o'clock and Colonel Maryus Jones, the moderator, will preside.

It is expected that the attendance this year will be the largest in the history of the association and the congregation of the Memorial church is bending every effort to make the meeting one of the most interesting and profitable. The association has a number of well known ministers and about 32 churches. Newport News, Williamsburg, Hampton and Gloucester, Warwick, York and Elizabeth City counties are embraced in the membership of the association.

This morning the association will hear the reports of the various standing committees and will also set the time for the usual special committees to make reports. Tonight Rev.
R. A. Folkes, of Gloucester county, will deliver the annual association sermon in the Memorial church at 8 o'clock.

The doctrinal sermon will be delivered by Rev. E. Pendleton Jones, D. D., pastor of the Hampton Baptist church.

The sessions of the association are open to the general public and all de-nominationists are invited to attend the sessions. There will be morning and night sessions today, tomorrow and Thursday.

The Woman's Baptist Missionary Union will hold its annual meeting in the Hampton Baptist church lecture room at 3 o'clock this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. W. S.
Leake, of Richmond, and Miss Buhl-maier, well known missionary workers, will be in attendance and make addresses. Mrs. Leake is the president of the Virginia union, while Miss Buhlmaier is the association missionary.

Quite a number of the delegates to the association reached the city last night, but those from Newport News and the surrounding counties are expected to reach here this morning.

Looking for Negro Orphans.

City Sergeant Walter E. Owens received a card from Chief of Police H.
W. Dyer, of Roanoke, making inquiry as to whether a band of negro orphan boys have reached this city from Huntington, W. Va. The Roanoke chief simply asked to be informed if the boys were here, but gave no reason for wanting them.

Death of an Infant.

Oscar W. Waterman, Jr., the eight-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W.
Waterman, Sr., died in the home of his parents Sunday evening. Funeral services were held yesterday morning.

Improved Order of Red Men.
The brothers of Wyoming Tribe No. 49 will assemble in their council chamber in Pythian Castle Tuesday, August 2, at 4 p. m. to attend the funeral service of our late brother A.
J. Gilbert. All visiting Red Men invited to attend.

By order of the Sachem,
